

My wife and I urge the FCC not to weaken the WI no call law, by trying to make us adhere to the weaker federal law. What ever happened to state's rights? Even with the present law, we receive several telemarketer calls a day. They are not just a nusiance, but make us very angry that we are so powerless to control them!!